

Embracing New Heights

The Quality and Safety Education for Nurses (QSEN) National Forum

is designed to attract innovators and nurture nursing leaders in both academia and practice for the improvement of quality and safety education through sharing of:

- Curricular design and teaching strategy innovations that accomplish QSEN competency development
- Research related to quality and safety education in clinical practice, pre-licensure and advanced practice academic programs

Conference Information

Location: Intercontinental Buckhead Atlanta
3315 Peachtree Road, Atlanta, GA 30326
Front Desk: 404.946.9191 or 877.422.8254

Conference Room Rate: $135/night (complimentary internet, room rate honored for three days before and after conference)

Abstract Instructions

To present papers or posters, submit abstracts online at www.qsen.org from October 15 to December 13, 2012. Notice of acceptance will be no later than February 15, 2013.

The lead presenter must register and remit registration fee for the conference by April 6, 2013 to be included in the program.

Information required for online submissions:

1. Contact (lead presenting) author's name, credentials, institution, city, state or country, contact address, e-mail, telephone and fax number
2. Title of presentation
3. List of all authors' names, credentials, titles, institutions, cities, states or countries in the order they should be listed on the abstract
4. Abstract in English, maximum of 350 words
5. Applicable content area:
 - Innovations in curricular design that accomplish QSEN competency development
 - Evaluations of teaching strategies that accomplish QSEN competency development (specify whether refers to clinical teaching, classroom teaching, or skills/simulation lab teaching)
 - Research related to learning assessment or outcomes of quality and safety education in clinical practice, pre-licensure or advanced practice programs
 - Innovations in practice partnership development related to quality and safety

Quality & Safety Education for Nurses (QSEN)

Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing

10900 Euclid Avenue

Cleveland, Ohio 44106-4904

Call for Abstracts

2013 QSEN National Forum

May 30- 31, 2013

Atlanta, Georgia

RETURN SERVICE
REQUESTED

Call for Abstracts